MISS NELLIE ROGERS

THIS POPULAR YOUNG LADY DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

FATHER DONAHOE DIES SUDDENLY.

Had Been Ill But Two Days, Though His Health Had Long Been Feeble-His Life and Work-Funeral of Captain Reeve and Others.

Miss Nellie McCance Rogers is dead. This will be sad news to the good people of Richmond, many of whom knew and loved this most estimable young lady. She passed away yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, at her home, No. 203 north Lombardy street.

Miss Rogers had been ill for more than four weeks with cerebro-spinal meningitis, and during nearly the whole time of her sickness had been delirous. The best medical skill was secured for her, and five physicians worked upon her, endeavoring to save her young life, but all efforts were vain. The insidious disease had made too great inroads on her constitution, and though she fought valiantly and stoutly against it she was forced finally to succumb. Miss Rogers was stricken on the evening of the 5th of May, just after she had dressed preparatory to attending a concert, and on the 7th, two days later, her 29th birthday occurred. During her long illness she never recognized any of the loved ones who ministered around her bedside, save her mother, and only recognized her occasionally and for a

HER SWEET VOICE STILLED. Miss Rogers will be greatly missed in was one of the best singers in the city. She had a rich, sweet soprano voice, with great power and fulness, and sang with much expression, and with a me-thod which was peculiarly her own. She studied first under Mrs. Edward T. Robinson, and afterwards her voice was trained by several well-known New York teachers. She was one of the most pop-ular church singers in Richmond. For awhile sire sung in St. Paul's choir, and in 1891 became a member of All-Saints' During her connection with the quarshe made many admirers among overs of vocal music, and sang in many amateur concerts in Richmond and others places, always pleasing her

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been perfected, but the obsequies will be held in St. Paul's church to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the interment will be in Hollywood. Rev. Dr. Carmichael will officiate.

Death of Father Donahoe. Rev. Father Patrick Donahoe, pasto

of St. Patrick's church, died after a brief illness at the rectory of the church, No. 213 north Twenty-fifth street, yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Not all of the members of St. Patrick's church perhaps knew that Father Donahoe was even sick, so sudden was his death, and the intelligence was a great shock to them all, and to the many other friends of the priest.

The last service Father Donahoe held was in celebration of the Feast of Corpus Christi, Thursday morning. He was taken sick soon after the service, and lingered until yesterday evening, just at sunset. During the illness he was attended by Dr. John H. Hinchman, and every-thing that thoughtful friends could do was done to make the last hours of the priest peaceful and happy. Deceased had been in failing health for several years. Deceased was a native of Ireland, and bout 50 years old. He became a priest in his native land, and came to America in 1872, entering the Virginia Diocese. He was first located in Lynchburg, then several years at Walkerton, in Fauquier co ty, and twelve years ago came to Rich-mond. He had been the pastor in charge of St. Patrick's church during that time, d was greatly beloved by his flock. THE FUNERAL TO-MORROW. The funeral will take place at 19 o'clo to-morrow morning, from St. Patrick's with solemn high mass. Doubtless a dozen or even more priests of the Rev. Father Wilkinson. the exercises. of Norfolk, will preach the sermon, and the absolution service will be conducted by Right Rev. A. Van de Vyver. The pall-bearers have not yet been selected and will not be until this morning at 9:30 o'clock, when the St. Patrick Beneficial and Social Society meets, as from the members of this organization, of which he was the spiritual director, hey will be chosen. Father Donahoe was greatly beloved by this society, and it meets this corning in the lecture-room of the church, to take proper action in respect to his memory. Funeral of Captain Reeve.

The funeral of Captain E. P. Reeve took place at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Second Presbyterian church, of which he had been an earnest member for many years. The services were conjucted by Rev. Donald Guthrie, assisted by Rev. Landon R. Mason. Dove Lodge of Masons attended in a body, and conducted the rites at the grave. The following were the pallbearers:

The Executive Committee of the Virginia Division of the Association of the Army of Northern Virginia held a meeting yesterday afternoon and adopted a memorial to Captain Reeve, which will be spread on the records of the association, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased. Those signing the paper are Judge George L. Christian (president), W. Gordon McCabe, W. E. Cut-Those signing the paper shaw, John Cussons, James T. Gray, Robert S. Bosher (treasurer), and Thomas Ellett (secretary). They say of Captain Reeve "In his death our association mourns loss of one of the most devoted and gullant soldiers whose names were en-rolled in the Confederate army; one who sealed his devotion to our cause with his blood by wounds received in battles, and who to the day of his death was conspicuous in maintaining and defending the principles for which he and his compatriots of the South fought."

DR. NANCE BURIED HERE. The remains of Dr. William N. Nance, who died on Thursday at his home, in Elk Horn, W. Va., arrived here yesterday morning, and were interred in Hollywood Cemetery. CAPT. C. G. BOSSIEUX HERE.

He Returns from Camp Cuba Libre-Virginia Lads Are Faring Well. Captain C. Gray Bossieux, of Company M. Third Virginia Regiment, who been detailed as recruiting officer for that regiment, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Camp Cuba Libre, at Jacksonville. He was accompanied by Corporal C. Irving Carrington, pany I; Corporal Weckert, of the Walker Light Guard, and a private in one of the Portsmouth companies. He has in-structions to secure 206 men, and says that he will take only the very best material, as should he take a man to Jacksonville who is rejected by the regimen-tal surgeon he would have to defray that man's expenses back to Virginia. Captain Bossieux has not decided what physician he will select to make the examination of the recruits he secures, but the examination will be exceptionally rigid, for the reason given above. He has not established or decided upon the location of his headquarters as yet. He expects to secure the men necessary to recruit the regiment in about three MEN IN GOOD CONDITION. Captain Bossleux, in talking about the condition of the men at Camp Cuba Libre last night, said they are delightfully situated. The weather, he says, is many degrees cooler in Jacksonville is many degrees cooler in and the men than it is here at present, and the men than it is excellent health and spirits. Of will have to get instructions from Adju-tant-General Corbin before he can move in that direction. He hopes, however, to get to work in a few days, and says he the 21,000 men encamped there, one seventy-five are sick, and their aliments are not of a serious nature.

The talk about the men being poorly fed at Jacksonville, Captain Bossieux says, has been exaggerated in some quarters. They are given fresh meat and vegetables every other day, and on the interporting days, are given beans the intervening days are given beans and salt meat. They are not stinted in quantity, either, and, altogether, they are doing remarkably well for soldiers. The Captain says the men are being rapidly equipped for service in Cuba or Porto Rico, but he has no idea that General Lee's corps, of which the Virginia reg ments are a part, will move from Florida for three months. Captain Bossieux was loaded down by the Virginia lads with messages their home folks, and it will take him several days to deliver all of them. General Charles J. Anderson has re-turned from a trip to Florida. He re-ports that the Virginia troops are get-ting along nicely, and are making rapid gress in learning how to handle arm properly. The northern soldie much better equipped in every their States have spent much money upon them, but the southern boys are getting in shape to make a record for

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED AT TWENTY-FIRST AND GRACE STS.

THE BODY HORRIBLY MANGLED. Death Resulted Almost Instantly Accident Happened About 10:30

Last Night-Street-Car. No. 119,

An unknown white man about 32 years old was run over by electric car, No. 119, of the Union Division of the Richmond Railway and Electric Company, at Twenty-first and Grace streets, last night at 10:30 o'clock, and almost instantly kill-the hips; the head was crushed, and the right arm broken and crushed. John C. Adams was the motorman in charge of the car which killed the man. Adams, immediately after the accident, went to the First Police-Station and gave himself up to Captain Whitlock and Sergeant Kerse, who were in charge at the time. He was not bailed, and remained at the station-house all night. HOW IT HAPPENED.

The details of the accident seem to be these: The man was on an east, or Church-Hill bound car, apparently going home. He got off at Twenty-first and Grace streets and started down Grace, when a west-bound car came up on the other side and struck him with sufficient force to knock him down. He was killed on the side and struck him with sufficient on the rail next to the car he had left-that is, he did not get fairly in front of the car which struck him. Motorman Adams and others say his car was going very slowly, and this appears to be cor-rect, as it did not go a length after the man was struck, and was stopped before the second wheel had passed body. A great pool of blood and the stain of brains lay on the street to tell the many curious gazers where the man's life was lost.

Those who reached the spot first say he breathed about ten minutes, but never spoke a word or uttered a sound. They took the mangled form from the middle of the street and laid it on the middle of the street and laid it on the pavement at the southwest corner. Policeman Werner, of the First District, was among the first at the place, and phoned for the ambulance, as he yet lived. Dr. Millier responded promptly, but found that his patient had passed beyond his skill. Officer Werner next phoned for Dr. Taylor, the Coroner Coroner Taylor viewed the remains, and removed the contents of the pockets in the man's clothing, hoping to find some means of identifying him, but in vain. The contents consisted of a pawn-ticket, a key, a lead-pencil, and a gold chain.

The remains were then placed in Billups's undertaking wagon and carried to the funeral director's morgue, No. 1995 east Main street, to await identity and claim by relatives or friends.

The one man, besides the motorman, who saw the terrible tragedy in all its revolting entirety was Mr. Emmett Richardson, who lives just across the street, at No. 202 north Twenty-first street. Mr. Richardson says that he noticed the unknown man get off the east-bound car, and walk deliberately in front of car No. 119, going west. The car struck him in the right side and back, knocking him down, and the front left-hand wheel passed over him.

ed over him. He was clean shaven, ordinarily dressed, and wore a brown derby. He was about 5 feet 8 inches in height. The inquest will be held at the undertaking-rooms this morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Adams, or "Buck," as he is well known, has always been considered a careful and competent motorman. He, of course, regrets the accident deeply, though conscientious in the belief that it happened through no fault of his.
